

Civil War Re-Enactment

Saturday and Sunday, June 24 & 25 @ 10 - 4:30 pm

The first year of the Civil War divided the nation, pitting brother against brother. There were decisive battles won on both sides that left the country wondering what the fate of the Nation would be. The event will focus on lesser known battles that represent the first year of the War. Two battles will take place on Saturday and one on Sunday with a possible small skirmish on Sunday morning leading to the afternoon battle. The purpose of these battles is to educate the public on lesser known ones. Additionally, there will be ongoing drills, presentations, and audience participation activities, including a court martial.

Special Event Pricing (*$1 above regular admission price). Members: Free for Traveler level and above
*Weekend Pass Offer: $20 which includes the Meet & Greet President Lincoln Social on Friday, and both days of Civil War!

Monday, June 26: Monroe Crossing @ 6 pm

Named in honor of Bill Monroe "The Father of Bluegrass Music," Monroe Crossing dazzles audiences with an electrifying blend of classic bluegrass, bluegrass gospel, and heartfelt originals. Their airtight harmonies, razor sharp arrangements, and on-stage rapport make them audience favorites across the United States and Canada.

Monroe Crossing is made up of five very distinct personalities with different musical backgrounds and tastes, combining for a very unique ensemble sound. They are Derek Johnson: guitar, lead & harmony vocals; Lisa Fuglie: fiddle, mandolin, lead & harmony vocals; Matt Thompson: mandolin, fiddle, baritone vocals; Mark Anderson: bass & bass vocals; and Green Bay native, David Robinson: banjo. Their paths crossed through the music of Bill Monroe so they like to say they had a "Monroe Crossing." Sponsored by: Egan Family Foundation
