

Fourteen Brown County historical organizations will open their doors free to the public for the fourth annual History Treasure Tour. Revealing many of the community's "hidden" historical treasures, this relaxed event encourages the public — including students and families — to explore Brown County's rich historical past, while enjoying fun, hands-on activities, special behind-the-scenes tours, and exclusive access to expert staff in unique historical environments.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 16, 2018
4:00 P.M. – 8:00 P.M.

You are invited to visit any or all Brown County Federation of History Organizations throughout the evening:

- Ashaubenon Historical Society Museum of History and Culture
- The Automobile Gallery
- Brown County Historical Society
- De Pere Historical Society
- White Pillars Museum
- Green Bay & De Pere Antiquarian Society at the Neville Public Museum's Auditorium
- Green Bay Diocese Museum
- Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame
- Heritage Hill State Historical Park
- Historic Allouez Society at the Riviera Bar and Grill
- Howard-Suamico Historical Society
- National Railroad Museum
- The Neville Public Museum
- Northeast Wisconsin Masonic Library/Museum
- Oneida Nation Museum

Brown County Federation of History Organizations

History TREASURE Tour

*Explore hidden treasures
and the unique history
of Brown County in one exclusive evening!*

May 16, 2018
4:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Brown County Federation of History Organizations

History TREASURE TOUR

- 1 Ashwaubenon Historical Society Museum of History and Culture
936 Anderson Drive, Green Bay, WI 54304
(920) 429-2863 • www.ashhs.com
Tour the newly opened Museum featuring the Vandertie Hobo Art collection and historical area artifacts.
- 2 The Automobile Gallery
400 S. Adams Street, Green Bay, WI 54301
(920) 437-9024 • theautomobilegallery.org
Stroll through a collection of over 60 automobiles in Green Bay's newest downtown attraction where "The Automobile is the Art"! Sit in various cars, get your picture taken, and talk with the on-site Pit Crew about these beautiful pieces of art.
- 3 Brown County Historical Society
1008 S. Monroe Avenue, Green Bay, WI 54301
(920) 437-1840 • www.browncountyhistoricalsoc.org
Built 1837-1838, Hazelwood was home to the Morgan L. Martin family. Tour this Greek Revival gem as you discover family treasures and enjoy stories and activities of 19th Century life shared by actors portraying the Martin family members.
- 4 De Pere Historical Society White Pillars Museum
403 N. Broadway St., De Pere, WI 54115
(920) 336-3877 • www.deperehistory.org
Demonstrating digital archiving procedures are used at White Pillars Museum, learn how to use online digital archives and photographs owned by the De Pere Historical Society to preserve and organize your own family history.
- 5 Green Bay & De Pere Antiquarian Society at the Neville Public Museum's Auditorium
P.O. Box 875, Green Bay, WI 54305 • www.antiquariansocietygbdp.org
View some of the artifacts owned by the Antiquarians that are seldom on display including a very rare photo of Abe Lincoln and Son Tad, one of only two known to exist, and a life bust of Lincoln done by Leonard Volk around 1860 before the war aged him.
- 6 Green Bay Diocese Museum
140 S. Monroe Avenue, Green Bay, WI 54301
(920) 432-4348 • <https://sfxcathedralgb.com/Museum>
Established in 1868 by Pope Pius IX, the Diocese of Green Bay is celebrating its 150th year! As the center of liturgical art and history, the Green Bay Diocese Museum's exhibits and interactive kiosk are dedicated to the preservation of cultural and archival materials from Northeastern Wisconsin.
- 7 Green Bay Packers Hall of Fame
1265 Lombardi Avenue, Green Bay, WI 54304
(920) 569-7512 • packers.com
Celebrate 100 seasons of Green Bay Packers history at the Packers Hall of Fame.

- 8 Heritage Hill State Historical Park
2640 S. Webster Ave., Green Bay, WI 54303
(920) 434-3514 • www.heritagehillgb.org
Celebrate Heritage Hill's 40th Anniversary by taking a tram tour around the Park to learn about its beginnings and early history. Tours will depart from the Education Center and last approximately 15-20 minutes.
- 9 Historic Allouez Society at the Riviera Bar and Grille
2150 Riverside Drive, Green Bay, WI 54301
(920) 435-6456 • RitaHouston@thehistoricalallouezsociety.org
Explore the history of Allouez from 1818-1848, during the roaring 20's and 30's, and through the lives of Packer legends that lived there.
- 10 Howard-Suamico Historical Society
12787 Velp Avenue, Suamico, WI 54173
(920) 434-3514 • www.hshistoricalociety.org
Open to the public for the first time, see our 1870's farmhouse and look back at a simpler life. Also enjoy a hands-on display of "treasures" Bryan Drown has found in the area. Then take a short stroll to the restored barn and witness an old fashioned "Barn Dance."
- 11 National Railroad Museum
2285 S. Broadway, Green Bay, WI 54304
(920) 437-7623 • nationalrrmuseum.org
Explore America's railroad history and learn about the railroad worker's experience by riding on a handcart, using historic tools, and exploring the trains in our collection.
- 12 The Neville Public Museum
210 Museum Place, Green Bay, WI 54303
(920) 448-4460 • www.nevillepublicmuseum.org
Explore the Neville Public Museum's new exhibit, Our Brown County. Discover 200 years of county history through 50 artifacts, 50 photographs, 50 people, and 50 places that demonstrate the complex, diverse, and rich history of Brown County. Visitors will get a sneak peek behind the scenes tour of the exhibit before it opens on May 29th!
- 13 Northeast Wisconsin Masonic Library/Museum
525 N. Taylor St., Green Bay, WI 54303
(920) 491-8374 • www.newmasoniccenter.com
View historic Masonic memorabilia and speak with actors portraying notable Masons living in the area before 1900, including Robert Irwin, Henry S. Baird, and Oliver Libbey.
- 14 Oneida Nation Museum
W892 County Road EE, De Pere, WI 54155
(920) 869-2768 • www.oneida-nsn.gov/Museum
Taste traditional food such as corn soup and corn bread as guest speakers share stories about Oneida history and culture.

