What is National Police Week?

In 1962, President Kennedy proclaimed May 15 as National Peace Officers Memorial Day and the calendar week in which May 15 falls, as National Police Week. Established by a joint resolution of Congress in 1962, National Police Week pays special recognition to those law enforcement officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty for the safety and protection of others.

Special thank you to Officer Jason Vogel, DEO Officer for the Village of Allouez, law enforcement officer's past and present who have worked for the Village as well as all officers throughout the nation.
